Electromagnetism & Spiritual Evolution

Synopsis of Book

For millennia the best minds of humanity have sought to answer the questions:

- 1) What Are We?
- 2) Why Are We Here?

Over time, these questions have split humanity into two camps: those who undertake to answer these questions using a scientific method (who spar and often ridicule) others who choose a metaphysical approach.

Tuning the Diamonds - Electromagnetism & Spiritual Evolution unites these two vastly different areas of human endeavor with a brilliance that will illuminate and most importantly satisfy both sides that strive to achieve this endeavor.

Ask anyone and they will tell you that “...something’s going on.” Some believe we are in the “End Times”, others say there’s a galactic alignment taking place. There are some who suggest a government conspiracy and others are convinced that an alien invasion is imminent. Whatever tale is told, the stresses upon humanity - infact all living organisms and upon our very solar system - have never been greater.

So what’s going on?

Humanity is crying out for answers; as we collectively approach the year 2012, the date handed down in stone calendars by the ancients or encoded in esoteric art, architecture and literature, on every continent, Susan Joy Rennison provides groundbreaking insight.

In a journey that has meant processing vast quantities of scientific research spanning over one hundred years, Ms. Rennison dares to put forth an alternative theory to mainstream opinion now taken as fact by most of Western society. She dares to challenge the cosmology enshrined in The Big Bang Theory and even chooses to challenge the role of gravity as the dominant force in our Universe! In the pages of her revolutionary book, readers will encounter the analysis that makes Tuning the Diamonds - a must for truth-seekers everywhere.

The reader is taken on sojourn that outlines the magnitude of the challenge to popular scientific belief. Next, Ms. Rennison begins to tackle, then integrate the wisdom of our ancestors as she explains, then validates spiritual and metaphysical teaching.

With the countdown to 2012 in its final years, Tuning the Diamonds explores the Mayan predictions of a New Age dominated by 'space' or 'ether.' She reveals that 'global warming' (the increase in average temperature of the Earth's surface), is not an accurate or even advisable description for this remarkable period in the history of mankind. Ms. Rennison reveals this 'new' challenge as Space Weather, which is bringing new hostile conditions upon our modern technological world and transforming our planetary environment.

Ms. Rennison offers a radical idea: We are not just facing environmental challenges, humanity and the Earth are facing a spiritual transformation. She states that we are being delivered vast quantities of 'New Energy' from solar, cosmic and galactic sources - it is this 'New Energy' that is creating the wildly fluctuating geomagnetic conditions that are effecting (and will continue to effect) all living entities - including the planets themselves!

Tuning the Diamonds - Electromagnetism & Spiritual Evolution* is a text book and study guide for the next New Age. This book helps us to comprehend, prepare and accept this upcoming 'New Energy' as it changes and evolves life, as we know it.

Tuning the Diamonds answers the questions:

- ◆ How will Space Weather affect the earth and me?
- ◆ What can I do to ease the affects of Space Weather?
- ◆ I want to raise my level of consciousness, what should I do?
- ◆ I want to assist the Earth through Her changes, what can I do?

In summary

Tuning the Diamonds - Electromagnetism & Spiritual Evolution* provides a step by step guide to why 'New Energy' techniques hold the key to empowering (and protecting) humanity during its next evolutionary expansion. Those who endeavor to understand this book's message will come to fully appreciate that "Knowledge is [indeed] Power." The readers that grasp the role of Universal Consciousness and seek to "tune the diamonds" will unlock their greatest potential by their utilization of Sacred Geometry. All that heed this book will step consciously into the web of life itself and participate with the Source of creation. They will be changed, forever.

Author Biography

Susan Joy Rennison

For over 30 years, Ms. Rennison has explored the connections and interface between science and spirituality. After graduating from a British University (Liverpool) with an honours degree in Physics and Geophysics, her early career was as a software analyst and software designer for mainframe computers, her affinity for analysis and problem solving, were accompanied by her project management skills. These abilities blended with her thirst for knowledge in the nature of human reality, accumulated in her deep discernment and insight.

Ms. Rennison is a dedicated and thorough researcher. Her open mind allows her to see, compare and contrast information from a broad spectrum of knowledge and find the intersections that connect them. Tuning the Diamonds - Electromagnetism & Spiritual Evolution is the first book written by Ms. Rennison and it fully demonstrates her talents, for it is a powerful and thought-provoking exploration into the field of consciousness. Ms. Rennison now devotes her time to assisting others on their personal path of evolution. For groups spanning the general public, academic forums, classes and seminars, and scientific conferences and symposia, Ms. Rennison offers her services as a speaker and specialist in the fields of Space Weather, physics, geomagnetism and human consciousness.

Susan Joy Rennison continues her ongoing studies into human and galactic evolution from her home in Olten, Switzerland. She may be contacted at:
